

Applying for Master's Programmes taught in English

A. Application procedure

The Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts, School of Architecture (RASA), accepts students for two-year Master's programmes.

The Admissions Board reviews the application materials of all applicants and is required to arrange the applications in order of priority if attendance must be limited. All decisions made by the Admissions Board are final.

Target group

Students with a Bachelor's degree (or the equivalent) from a state-recognized Danish or foreign school of architecture may apply for admission. Foreign students are eligible for admission if their qualifications are assessed as being comparable to the Danish entrance qualifications.

Enclosures

The application must contain a complete application form (see page 2) and the following enclosures in English:

- Verified copy of your Bachelor's diploma from a state recognized school of architecture with an indication of performance in each subject.
- Your portfolio should not exceed A3-format, and must be easy to ship by mail, store and review. Faxes, e-mails and digital documentation will not be accepted. The portfolio should present your preceding Bachelor course of study (divided by study year), including project assignments. It should be a broad and nuanced illustration of your level in terms of architectural design, theoretical foundation, working method and presentation skills.
- Motivation for studying at RASA (max 1 page)
- Curriculum vitae
- Copy of your passport
- Language test requirements.
Verification of English proficiency: Minimum requirements: TOEFL paper based - 550, TOEFL internet based - 80, IELTS - 6.0. Language tests are not required for Scandinavian students if they have English on B-level or the equivalent from qualifying exam (documentation required). Students who have earned their full Bachelor's degree in English are also exempted (documentation required).

RASA only accepts original documents or legally certified copies in English. Your application will be refused if it does not contain all the required enclosures.

Payment

Applicants from non-EU/EEA countries enrolling as students at RASA must pay a tuition fee of 5.000 EURO per semester. Payment deadline is 15 May for the following academic year. Further information will be provided for the non-EU/EEA students who get accepted to Master's programme.

Application deadline and procedure:

All application material must be submitted by 15 March for entry 1 September the following academic year. It may take up to 6 weeks before you will receive an answer, after the deadline application date has passed.

Please note that applications submitted by fax, e-mail and /or digital documentation will not be accepted.
